AURIC HOUSE

LIABILITY:

1. Host Liability: To the fullest extent allowed by law, Guest and any of their occupants hereby indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Host against any and all claims of personal injury or property damage or loss arising from or relating to the use of the Property, unless the loss is a direct result of the Host's negligence or willful misconduct. The Guest expressly recognizes that any insurance held by the Host does not cover the personal property of Guest and that Guest should purchase their own insurance for their guests if such coverage is desired.
2. Guest Liability: The Guest is liable for their own acts and those of anyone listed in this Agreement in addition to any occupant or guest they allow on the Property.
3. Force Majeure: Force majeure is defined as causes beyond the control of Auric House, including, without limitation, acts of God; acts, regulations, or laws of any government; war; civil commotion; destruction of facilities or materials by fire, flood, earthquake, explosion or storm; labor disturbances; virus, disease or pandemic; and failure of public utilities or common carriers. Auric House is not responsible for loss, damage or injury of any kind caused by or related to Force Majeure events, including but not limited to partial or full cancellations.
