PALM SPRINGS

EVENTS

Korakia Pensione began hosting visiting artists and musicians in the 1920s, when painter Gordon Coutts built a Moroccan hideaway to recreate his life in Tangier. The Mediterranean villa next door was owned by silent screen star J. Carrol Naish. Today, the two historic properties are a 1.5-acre petite resort known as one of the premiere Palm Springs Hotels—a hidden oasis of secret gardens, pools, lounges, and fountains among 29 villas and homes.

Our fully enclosed petite resort is the perfect setting for a company offsite retreat, a multi-generational family gathering, an exclusive brand launch, or a destination wedding. Our historic courtyard and lobby spaces can host indoor and outdoor events for up to 200 guests. With 29 villas and suites of various sizes, we can accommodate intimate gatherings, private dinners, spa treatment rooms, or gifting suites. Framed by the stunning San Jacinto Mountains, your event will be both picturesque and unforgettable. Between activities, your guests can relax and unwind in our serene desert oasis.

STAY A WHILE

A hideaway of historic Mediterranean- and Moroccan-style villas and suites, Korakia blends the silhouette of Tangier with the soul of a European pensione. Begin the day with a nourishing breakfast in the Moroccan courtyard. Soothe your soul poolside, seek healing through yoga, or pamper yourself with our spa offerings. Relax by one of our pools with a specialty cocktail or refreshing mocktail from the bars at our two pools. Join a game of bocce ball or explore downtown Palm Springs on one of our bicycles. Relax and refresh with the Moroccan tea service each afternoon. Lanterns and firepits flicker, illuminating the heated pools at night. Classic and foreign films glimmer on a nearby screen. A fire pit blazes by our waterfall, perfect for a tranquil nightcap. A Moroccan daybed beckons for stargazing.
